

2023 Texas Convening

Nurture Freedom Dreams of Justice, Liberation, & Belonging

Welcome!

Throughout the convening, we hope you will engage in simulation, team building, and improv. The purpose of this approach is to accelerate the meaning of "impact before outcome." We want to discover, learn, play, and move in rhythm with one another so that we move into transformational co-design and community organizing (the NEW way). Each of you play a role as interested parties. We gather to experience what is required for us to "nurture freedom dreams" of justice, liberation and belonging.

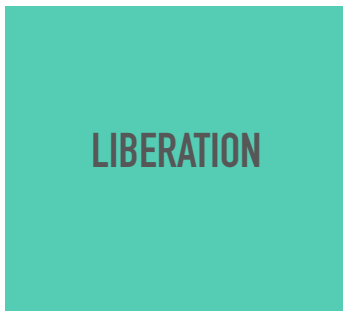

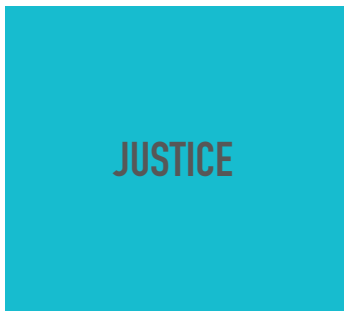

Sincerely,

CWREC Planning Team (Dr. Eloise Sepeda, Michael Martinez, Tanya Rollins, Tammy Jitnoom, Hon. Judge Aurora Martinez Jones)

Modes of Being

Grounding: Are able to convene with a deepened analysis from the most impacted perspectives.

Inquiry & Imagination: Navigate the “not knowing”, while discovering opportunities that reveal a commitment to try small things that get us closer to “real co-design” with families/community members.

Defining: Intentionally look for and discover patterns, stories and the deepest needs of the people closest to and challenged by the problem.
